CHAMPS – Trainer of Trainers 3 Day Workshop Series

Instructor: Laura Hamilton

CHAMPS strategies are research-based practices that are highly effective and easy to implement. CHAMPS trainers teach and assist classroom teachers to design proactive & positive classroom management plans that explicitly teach students how to behave responsibly.

When you treat student misbehavior as an instructional opportunity, you give students the chance to learn from their mistakes.

Dates: April 19, 20 & 21 , 2010

Time: 8:00 AM – 3:30 PM

Location: Wyndham Lisle- Chicago 3000 Warrenville Road, Lisle

Implementing CHAMPS will:

- Establish clear behavioral expectations with logical & fair responses to misbehavior
- Improve classroom climate by establishing respectful & civil interactions
- Reduce classroom disruptions and office referrals
- Motivate students to put forth their best efforts
- Increase academic engagement and student on-task behavior
- Allow teachers to spend less time disciplining students and more time teaching them
- Teach students to behave respectfully and to value diversity

Registration fee: $325 per participant for the three day workshop series (includes lunch each day). The CHAMPS Trainer Manual is required and will be provided to each attendee at an additional cost of $100.00. Each participant MUST bring a copy of CHAMPS: A Proactive & Positive Approach to Classroom Management 2nd Edition. Upon district approval , SASED will purchase a CHAMPS book for each participant. Discipline in the Secondary Classroom is recommended but not required for staff working primarily at the High School Level. Books can be purchased online from Pacific Northwest Publishing at www.pacificnwpublish.com.
